Reminder on Webinar Archives:

All of the HUD Office of Housing Counseling's webinars are posted in archival form on the Training Webinar Archive. There is no registration or fee required to view these archival versions. Recent postings include:

- Original air date: October 15, 2014 – Webinar: Intermediary Training, Oversight of Networks. The HUD Office of Housing Counseling will be hosting a series of webinars on the roles and responsibilities of organizations with networks of sub-grantees, affiliates, and/or branch offices. These trainings will cover the topics of Network Monitoring, Network Expansion, Grant Administration and Technical Assistance. This first webinar provided an overview of the series and briefly address network monitoring, expansion, grant administration. The webinar also discussed affirmatively furthering fair housing requirements for HUD participating agencies through marketing activities. All HUD Housing Counseling Program participating agencies such as Intermediary Organizations, State Housing Finance Agencies, Multi State Organizations and Local agencies that have multiple offices should plan to watch this informative series.
